Biography

Brent Eisenberg is the founding partner of DeHay & Elliston's Midwest Branch Office based in Chicago, Illinois. Mr. Eisenberg serves on the national coordinating counsel team for a multinational power company in the Fortune 200. Mr. Eisenberg coordinates national trial and settlement negotiation strategy with the client's general counsel, insurance carriers and local counsel across the country in the defense of asbestos related claims. Eisenberg is a go-to settlement negotiator for the firm's clients and negotiates global settlement packages in cases filed across the country.

Eisenberg also manages the defense of mesothelioma, lung cancer and ovarian cancer claims filed against an industrial talc manufacturer in the Midwest. In 2021, Mr. Eisenberg won a ruling barring plaintiff's expert witnesses in federal court that was well-publicized across social media platforms and published in the Chicago Daily Law Bulletin. See Johnson v. Orton, 2021 U.S. Dist. Lexis 225819.

Outside of the office, Brent Eisenberg spends time with his wife Jessica, son Cole and their English Bulldog Larry.
